

CAPITAL INDIGO IS SEEKING TO PLACE A CKD IN THE MEXICAN STOCK EXCHANGE IN 2017

Mexico City, January 25, 2017.- Capital Indigo looks forward to raising a structured private debt fund in 2017, that will primarily address the financing needs of medium-sized companies in various sectors in Mexico. Founded in 2009 by Everardo Camacho and Bernardo Paasche, Capital Indigo plans to raise up to P$3 billion by placing a Certificado de Capital de Desarrollo (CKD) on the Mexican Stock Exchange (BMV), which will be preceded by a private co-investment vehicle¹.

Rodrigo Gómez Alarcón joins Indigo's team to lead the private debt strategy, bringing his extensive experience in the financial sector of over 15 years as Director in Promecap, negotiating, structuring and closing operations, both private equity and private debt transactions.

Bernardo Paasche stated: "With Rodrigo's entry to lead Capital Indigo's debt efforts, we have strengthened our team with one of the most experienced professionals in private debt in Mexico, and I am sure he will be key to the success of this new private debt fund."

On the other hand, Everardo Camacho commented: "For Capital Indigo, the launch of this new private debt fund represents an extraordinary opportunity to meet the growing financing needs of the medium-sized companies in Mexico. Particularly, considering the challenges the country faces during 2017, financing the medium-sized company is vital to strengthen one of the engines of our economy that generates more jobs."

Capital Indigo is a Mexican private equity manager based in Mexico City, focused primarily on debt and equity investments in high-growth medium-sized companies. The team has extensive experience in the private equity industry, corporate banking, investment banking, strategic consulting and corporate management, thus allowing them to participate actively in the structuring and execution of different types of investment that may be tailor-made according to the companies' specific needs.

¹ The issuance, placement and offer of the CKD shall be subject to the compliance with the requirements established in the applicable legal provisions. This note cannot be considered as an offer to acquire securities or a placement of securities among the public investors.
