Nexxus announces its divestment from Harmon Hall

Nexxus announces that on March 26th, 2019, it fully divested from Harmon Hall Holding, S.A de C.V. (“Harmon Hall” or the “Company”), a portfolio company from Nexxus Capital Private Equity Fund III.

Harmon Hall is a leading English language teaching institution in Mexico with more than 51 years of experience and 105 schools in operation, making it the largest school network nationwide. Of all Harmon Hall schools, 76 are owned and 29 are franchised.

The Company has been acquired by Talisis, a subsidiary from Grupo Topaz, a strategic investor with experience in the educational sector. 414 Capital and Ibis Capital advised the Company and its shareholders on the transaction.

We sincerely thank our co-investors in the Company, management and operation team, and all those involved in the conclusion of this investment cycle.

About Nexxus

Nexxus has actively contributed to the private equity industry in Mexico since its foundation in 1995. It is one of the leading alternative asset managers in Mexico and one of the most successful in Latin America.

Including this transaction, Nexxus has completed 27 investments and has fully divested from 14 portfolio companies. Nexxus has raised and managed several funds with capital commitments in excess of US$1.5 billion and is the only Mexican alternative asset manager that has listed six portfolio companies in the public markets.

Considering the divestment from Harmon Hall, the portfolio of Nexxus Capital Private Equity Fund III, which was originally composed of 4 companies, will only held Grupo Hotelero Santa Fé, a public company that is already in a divestment process.

Nexxus strives to be the Mexican alternative asset manager with whom investors, entrepreneurs and service providers prefer to associate with due to its value creation capabilities, acting with complete transparency, integrity and professionalism.
